About Sue Lewis

Since qualifying as a counsellor in 1998, I have worked with children, young people and adults in a variety of contexts (including the NHS, Voluntary Sector, Employee Assistance Programmes and Private Practice).

For 9 years, I worked for Relates young peoples counselling service, providing counselling in primary and secondary schools. I currently work as a secondary school counsellor, as well as seeing adults, children, and young people in private practice in Derbyshire.

I am senior accredited counsellor and supervisor with BACP. I have been supervising since 2004, both privately and for organisations. This includes offering individual and group supervision to counsellors working with young people. Having previously worked as a primary school teacher; I have worked with children and young people all my working life.

I am passionate about the Person-centred Approach. I have co-facilitated a Person-centred counselling diploma course in Nottingham for 4 years and currently facilitate the Certificate in Working with Children and Young People at Temenos in Sheffield.

Event Details

Sue will consider how the Ethical Framework relates to work with Children and Young People. She will consider how we might approach the challenge of keeping our young clients at the centre of our work when the interests of others are often also in the picture. Sue will also refer to some of the ways in which we might try to keep our knowledge and skills in this area up to date.
