Event Details

According to authoritative sources, up to 50% of people will experience a psychiatric diagnosis during their lifetime.

In this event, Terry Lynch will discuss the major degree to which the psychiatric diagnoses are misunderstood. He will talk about the central role of wounding, shock, distress, defense mechanisms, patterns of choice-making, and trauma and defense mechanisms within the experiences and behaviors that come to be diagnosed with various mental illnesses. The very considerable potential of counseling and psychotherapy to help this will also be discussed during this event.
