

Does prison change sex offenders – Marilyn Hawes

Resource Guide

About Marilyn Hawes

The founder of Enough Abuse, www.enoughabuseuk.com Marilyn Hawes, is a trained music teacher whose sons were sexually groomed and abused by their Head teacher, a close family friend. Marilyn's concern was why, having attended child protection courses with the headmaster, she failed to recognise the headmaster's behaviour as a threat.

With the benefit of hindsight and new knowledge, the signs were there to be seen by anyone who knew what to look for. The issue is no education existed about the recognisable behaviour of abusers and the abused. Enough Abuse is taking a lead position working with government and their agencies. As a consequence the Enough Abuse campaign is "to educate children, parents, teachers and child support agencies on how to recognise the signs of an abuser and an abused child and keep more children safe".

Enough Abuse delivery style is VERY different and unique when compared to that of other organisations. Our consultants are articulate survivors of sexual abuse and fully understand the issues because of their personal history. Knowledge regarding child sexual abuse is a dark subject which we would all rather avoid. However, we ALL have a duty of care for the safe keeping of children in our society. We need to teach on how to recognise an abuser and the abused much in the same way as we used to teach the Green Cross Code.

Sexual abuse will not end. For some people it is part of the human condition. There are NO guarantees for protection from this crime. Nevertheless the best chance we have to reduce the numbers of abused children is by educating all who have a duty of care to children on how to recognise inappropriate behaviour.

Enough Abuse

Enough Abuse UK is a charity organisation looking to reduce the incidence of Child Sexual Abuse. Its training and consultancy operation is focused on education into grooming, the preamble to sexual and other forms of abuse. This knowledge enables all those with a duty of care to be able to better protect children and by building resilience within a child to resist inappropriate behaviour.

Enough Abuse UK works across the UK and also is building relations with the US Enough Abuse. This means we can share programs and increase effectiveness in both countries. has support from staff in the USA.
