ethical considerations when counselling children and young people

Peter Jenkins
in conversation with
Judith Mulcahy

In this DVD Peter Jenkins is interviewed by Judith Mulcahy on the issues relating to confidentiality in therapeutic work with children and young people in school settings. Peter is the author of several books on the law including Counselling, Psychotherapy and the Law (Second edition, Sage, 2007) and is co-author, with Debbie Daniels, of the recently published Therapy With Children (Second edition, Sage, 2010).

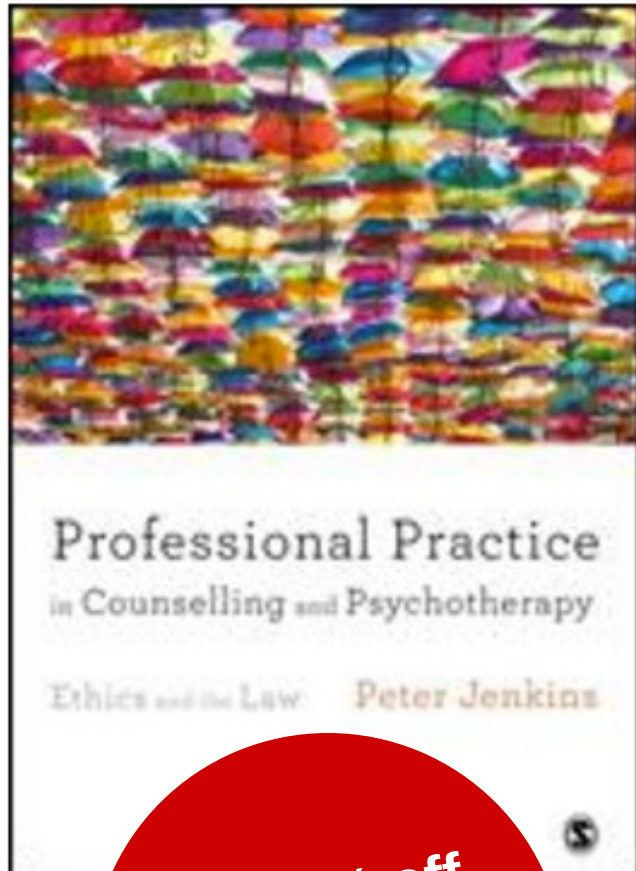

He has extensive experience of running training workshops on legal aspects of therapy. He is a Senior Lecturer in Counselling at Salford University, and an honorary counsellor at Manchester University Counselling Service. Formerly a member of the BACP Professional Conduct Committee, he is currently a member of the UKCP Ethics Committee.

BOOK

Professional Practice in Counselling and Psychotherapy

Ethics and the Law

Developing and maintaining a secure framework for professional practice is a core part of any counselling and psychotherapy training, as all therapists need to understand the key values, ethics and laws that underpin the profession today. But what does being a member of a 'profession' actually mean, and what does being a 'professional' actually involve?

Structured around the BACP Core Curriculum, and with the help of exercises, case studies and tips for further reading this book covers everything from the requirements of the BACP Ethical Framework to broader perspectives on good professional practice.
