Certificate in Counselling Children and Young People

A 10 day course over five 2-day blocks for qualified counsellors/psychotherapists who work with children and young people or who wish to work with this age group.

The course is based on the philosophies and principles of the person centred approach. It will support participants to fulfil their personal and professional learning needs and to develop their own approaches to counselling children and young people, whatever their theoretical training. It will consider the recently developed competencies for counsellors of young people and will give participants an opportunity to meet some of the criteria for senior accreditation as a CYP counsellor.
