About Olivia Djouadi

I am a trauma therapist with over 10 years expertise and previously worked at a refugee center assisting kids who survived trauma. I have been practicing as a UKCP accredited psychotherapist and an ACTO Online counselor and supervisor. I am a tutor at OLT <http://www.onlinetrainingforcounsellors.com> teaching online counseling and supervision.

My mission in my work is to help those who suffered trauma and start living beyond what occurred before. Creativity also comes into my work.

Event Details

Captivity brings to mind stories of those who survived it and at times military that were prisoners of war. Would it shock you to know that captivity happens in the UK? How do we care for the survivor? What may of occurred to their thinking after release? What symptoms maybe present?

I hope to cover these and more in this interview.
