About Sue Lewis

Since qualifying as a counsellor in 1998, I have worked with children, young people and adults in a variety of contexts (including the NHS, Voluntary Sector, Employee Assistance Programmes and Private Practice).

For 9 years, I worked for Relate's young people's counselling service, providing counselling in primary and secondary schools. I currently work on a self-employed basis as a secondary school counsellor, as well as seeing adults, children, and young people in private practice in Derbyshire.

Sue Lewis

I am senior accredited counsellor and supervisor with BACP. I have been supervising since 2004, both privately and for organisations. This includes offering individual and group supervision to counsellors working with young people. Having previously worked as a primary school teacher; I have worked with children and young people all my working life.

I am passionate about the Person-centred Approach. I have co-facilitated a Person-centred counselling diploma course in Nottingham for 4 years and currently facilitate the Certificate in Working with Children and Young People at Temenos in Sheffield.

Diploma In Counselling Children & Young People

The course will develop your knowledge, understanding and practical skills for counselling Children & Young People. The learning on the course supports work with clients ranging from very young children to 18 year olds.

The learning outcomes from BACP's curriculum framework for working with young people (11–18 years) are integrated into the course. As BACP's competencies for working with children (4-11 years) become available, we intend to integrate these into the course.

The diploma course runs over 2 years, with 5 weekends of contact time and 3 evening seminars each year.

Attendance and successful completion of the coursework leads to a Certificate qualification after year 1 and a Diploma qualification after year 2.
