About Robin Shohet

Robin Shohet and Joan Wilmot have been running supervision courses since 1979.

I have been teaching supervision for over 35 years through the CSTD (Centre for Supervision and Team Development). I am co-author of 'Supervision in the Helping Professions' and editor of 'Passionate Medicine', 'Passionate Supervision', 'Supervision as Transformation', and 'Clinical Supervision In The Medical Profession'. I'm now researching for a book on Supervision as Spiritual Practice.

About Joan Wilmot

I co-founded CSTD in 1979 and work as a trainer, supervisor, psychotherapist, mediator, and coach. I have been running supervision trainings and working with teams, in particular the NHS and voluntary sector, for 38 years. My particular passion is in enabling people to find the work they love and love the work they do. I am also co-founder and an active member of Findhorn Playback Theatre, Northern Lights Learning Conference, and Mythodrama Scotland.

I have written about supervision in the CSTD book, Supervision in the Helping Professions: Hawkins, P. Shohet R; also in Passionate Supervision ed Shohet R. chapter 5 The Supervisory Relationship: A Life long calling, and in Training and Supervision for Counselling in Action: ed Dryden W. Thorne B. The Key Issue in the Supervision of counsellors.

Event Details

Robin and Joan have been running supervision training for over forty years, and have watched how the field has changed and developed over that time. Robin was instrumental in the setting up of the Independent Practitioners Network in the mid 90s and sees the need for a similar network specifically for supervisors. Tonight, we will be sharing our ideas about why we think such a network is important and inviting the chat room to share their views on how we could take it forward.
